It has been a very busy fortnight indeed with exams, the Squad Singing Competition, clay pigeon shooting, chess matches and the start of the rugby season combining to make sure that the boys have been kept extremely busy. Indeed, as I write, the boarders are enjoying an epic game of Colditz as they try to use the cover of darkness to move across the grounds whilst evading the spotlights of the guards: no wonder the form 6 trial boarding week was over-subscribed!

The next couple of weeks look busy, too and it is hard to know what I am looking forward to most. There are plenty more rugby matches, the Squad Chess tournament will take place, the shooters will be completing the targets for the St Andrew's and St Patrick's Shields, the junior nativity play and the boarders' Christmas Feast will be great fun and, last but not least, the Christmas Concerts and the carol services will be real highlights. One thing is sure: the days will race past!

Aldro 2nd XV solid season start!

The first game of the season produced a solid 12 all draw against Highfield 2nd XV. The game was played in good spirit with some great tackling and running by the boys. Aldro were 12-0 up at half-time through excellent forward play and fast hand in the backline to allow S. Callander to score. After some more excellent build up by the forwards, J. Bradley ducked under a Highfield player to score a nice try in the corner, which was converted by H. Charles out wide. The second half saw Highfield to their credit, score two superb second-half tries and were unlucky not to win missing the final kick. A solid first match performance, well done boys.

TRIAL BOARDING WEEK A GREAT SUCCESS

We had a fantastic Form 6 trial boarding week with eleven boys. Lots of the usual fun including Colditz, go-gos in the dorms, and voluntary early morning runs with M.Lombardot which were extremely popular. As always, the boys quickly learnt that boarding is not just a sleepover and made sure that they were organising themselves and getting enough sleep to be ready for school each day. It was such a popular week that there will be another one for this form next term.
